

DEFERRED ITEMS.

Additional news from Washington with respect to the establishment of an empire in Mexico, goes to show that it was not the work of Louis Napoleon to place Prince Maximilian on the throne, if we may believe the report. It is stated that Almonte, representing the conservative Mexicans, three years ago proposed to the European Powers to place Maximilian at the head of the country. It is added, also, that Louis Napoleon has given directions to General Forey to leave this subject and all political questions to be settled by the people.

Mr. Edward Dawson, a barber in Washington, has got into a singular difficulty. He was arrested and put in the guard house on Friday for the offence of shaving a couple of soldiers of their beard. It is alleged that they were about to desert. The men informed him they had a furlough for fifteen days.

The monthly table of marine losses for the past month shows an aggregate of thirty vessels. Nine were captured and burned, three are missing (supposed lost,) one was abandoned at sea, and one sunk after collision. The total value of the property lost, missing, and destroyed by cruisers is estimated at two million thirty-one thousand six hundred dollars.

Hon. R. A. Buckner, the present Speaker of the House of Representatives of Kentucky, offered his name as an anti administration candidate for Congress, as the successor of the Mr. Crittenden, in the Ashland district.

Owing to obstructions in the roads between the city of Mexico and Acapulco, news has been received from the city of Mexico only to June 25th. General Alvarez, from whom accounts are received to the 29th instant, was expecting the arrival at Acapulco of the French fleet, with ten thousand soldiers. This force is to come from the Gulf of Mexico, across Tehautepec, and from Acapulco will be dispatched for garrisons for all the Mexican Pacific ports.

The Baltimore city councils have adopted a resolution requiring the teachers of music in the public schools of that city, to teach the scholars the national airs, and any pupils refusing to sing them are to be expelled.

It is intimated that one of the first acts of the next Congress will be the amending of the present confiscation laws, so as to deprive armed Confederates of their property perpetually. The present law only confiscates property during life.

Several German girls have gone to service in the harvest fields of Northern Illinois.

Rev. Charles Beecher, of Georgetown, Mass., brother to Henry Ward Beecher, has just been convicted of heresy by a Congregational Council.

It is estimated that only five thousand, or one-third of the drafted men of Maine, will be forthcoming, the remainder being exempted either for disability or having seen service, or from some other satisfactory cause.

The tobacco crop in Maryland has been badly put back. Moreover, the escape of slaves from the plantations puts in great peril the maturing of this important crop of the State. In fact, lower Maryland is now in need of laborers to attend to the crops generally, and unless they are forthcoming there will be a scarcity of food among the people.

The Norwegian sloop which recently arrived at Chicago, from Norway, cleared at that port on Saturday for Christiana, Norway, with the following cargo: 55 bbls. flour, 24 bbls. pork, 178 hides, 28 casks hams, 10 bbls. tobacco, 32 boxes kerosene lamps.

The extra time wages recently allowed in the Washington Navy Yard, are to be rescinded, except under special orders given by the proper officers. This has been done to prevent abuses.

The Nashville journals state that the Confederates are preparing to take the wheat crop out of East Tennessee, even if they do it before it is threshed.

The steamer Morning Star, that ran aground near Long Branch, has been got off, and is now in port.

Thousands of mechanics, laborers and artisans are wanted in Cincinnati, caused by the drain made on that city by St. Louis.

Mr. Vallandigham has left the Clifton House, at Niagara Falls, and sought quieter quarters at a short distance from there. This was necessitated by the crowd of callers by whom he was hourly beset.

Gen. Neal Dow left Richmond last week for Mobile, Alabama, to answer to a requisition from the Governor of that State. Before leaving he wrote letters to his wife and other relatives North. Over a hundred cases of larceny are charged against him in the South.

James Whitter was arrested on Saturday night, in New York, charged with being the leader of the mob that attacked the Tribune buildings on Monday, the 13th ult. Whitter is a barber, and has been employed at Christadoro's establishment at the Astor House, for a number of years past.

The Old Point steamers, which continue to arrive in Baltimore daily, are bringing increased supplies of early vegetables and fruits. These products of the extensive gardens of the country around Norfolk and Portsmouth may be enumerated under the head of cucumbers, tomatoes, potatoes, peaches, apples, cantaleups and watermelons. For these there is a steady demand from the North which helps to raise the prices.

The Bank of Gettysburg has resumed its operations, and is transacting business again as before the invasion. Business generally is being resumed again, and the deserted stores and empty offices so lately filled with wounded soldiers, are being refitted and reopened, and soon Gettysburg will have emerged from the smoke, and recovered from the shock of battle.

Winchester, in Virginia, is represented as nearly deserted—the stores all closed, and the windows and doors of many of the houses nailed up.

Abbott, Lossing, Headley and other eminent writers will contribute to the "Lives of the Generals now in the Union Army," a work now in a forward state of preparation.

The bark Daniel Webster brings advices from Bahia to July 4th. The steamers Georgia and Alabama sailed from Bahia May 24. The steamer Mohican arrived there June 24, and sailed on the 30th in pursuit. The Mohican had one man killed and another wounded by the premature explosion of a gun while firing a salute at Bahia. The ship Onward also sailed about May 28th on a cruise. The Daniel Webster brings home a number of seamen recently belonging to the ships Sea Lark, Dorcas Prince, and bark Union Jack, which vessels were destroyed by the Confederate vessels.

The Confederate steamer Nita, with a cargo of cotton, arrived at Havana on the 23d ult.
